

KJ Apa

Jimmy Stewart, JIMMY

KJ Apa is most widely known for his breakout role as Archie in the Greg Berlanti-produced series “Riverdale,” an adaptation of the Archie comic book series. Most recently, Apa can be seen starring in the Prime Video film, The Map That Leads to You, alongside Madelyn Cline, which was released in August 2025.

Apa will play the lead role of James Stewart in the upcoming Burns & Co film JIMMY, which will be released in theaters November 2026. Additionally, he set to star as Bradley Nowell in Sony’s 3000 Pictures biopic of the iconic band Sublime, with Justin Chon on board to direct. Apa will also star in Falling, Gulfstream’s latest romantic comedy-drama.

He can also be seen starring in Amazon’s motorcycle drama One Fast Move, alongside Maia Reficco, Eric Dane, and Edward James Olmos, which was released on August 8, 2024. Additional credits include the Netflix feature The Last Summer, the George Tillman Jr. drama The Hate U Give, Songbird directed by Adam Mason, and I Still Believe, opposite Britt Robertson, Shania Twain, and Gary Sinise.

Originally from New Zealand, Apa now resides in Los Angeles.